

Academy #1

WIDA ELP Standards: Culturally and Linguistically Responsive Education for ELLs

June 14-16, 2011 • Bloomington, MN

Academy #2:

WIDA ELP Standards: Adapting Curriculum
Materials for ELLs

October 5-7, 2011 • Atlanta, GA

For details on each academy, please see reverse.

Registration Cost: $400

Early registration: $360

Registration opens March 15, 2011.

For more information on these academies or to register, please visit:

www.wida.us/academy

Academy #1:

WIDA ELP Standards:

Culturally and Linguistically Responsive Education for ELLs

June 14-16, 2011

Bloomington, MN

Registration Deadline: May 13, 2011

Description: This is an introductory academy for educators who wish to gain an understanding of how school contexts can use the WIDA ELP Standards to enhance social, cultural and academic success for ELLs. Participants will acquire tools that can be used to support equitable and enriching school and classroom environments for ELL academic achievement. In addition, participants will learn how the WIDA framework can have a role in differentiating language and supporting academic success. A constructive, discovery orientated approach through interactive activities will guide educators from any public school context or grade level focus in gaining insights for assisting ELLs.

Academy #2:

WIDA ELP Standards:

Adapting Curriculum Materials for ELLs

October 5-7, 2011

Atlanta, GA

Registration Deadline: September 2, 2011

Description: This is an intermediate academy that will guide teachers in the process of integrating the WIDA ELP Standards with grade-appropriate, state content standards curriculum. Participants will adapt and differentiate materials to include academic language development in their lessons and make content accessible to students of varying ELL proficiency levels. Key to this process will be opportunities to engage in collegial discussions and collaborative learning.

Please note participants will be required to bring curriculum or lesson materials for participation in this workshop. Participants are encouraged to sign up as a team.

For more information on these academies or to register, please visit:
www.wida.us/academy