

Grade 1:

In addition to strategies provided to support language development during regular classroom instruction, XXX received EAL support in reading and writing workshop throughout the first trimester. Targeted instruction included decoding skills and comprehension strategies for reading, as well as conventions and sentence fluency during writing workshops. Please read each night with your child in both your home language and English.