

Grade 4:

In addition to strategies provided to support language development during regular classroom instruction, XXX received EAL support in several writing workshops throughout the first trimester. This targeted organization of writing, conventions, and sentence fluency. XXX is encouraged to choose a variety of books and to continue reading nightly for at least 30 minutes.